

PATRICK

Written by Kirsty MacColl
Transcribed by John Meranda

The following chords are used in this song:

XX0232 320003 X02220
D G A

=====

D G D G D G D G

A G A
He was a stranger in London at night

G D A D
And he felt alone so he followed a light

G D
Into a bar where the music was loud

G D A D
He ordered a pint and got lost in the crowd

G D G D
He asked a girl if she wanted to dance

A D
She turned up her nose and she told him "No chance!"

G D
He felt rejected and stood by the wall

G D A D
And wondered why he'd ever bothered at all

G D G D
He missed his family and wished he was home

A D
With all of those strangers he felt so alone

A D
Patrick don't be afraid

G A D
You'll live to laugh another day

A D
Patrick don't be afraid

G A D
The cavalry is on the way

A D A D A D A

D G D
He stood in silence, looked round for a while

G D A D
Then he saw a girl and she looked back and smiled

G D
Then he went over and started to talk

G D A D
She looked a bit like his sister in Cork

G D G D
He bought her a drink with his last two quid

A D
When he said "Come back for a coffee" she did

A D
Patrick you've got it made

G A D
You're halfway there, you're on your way

A D
Patrick she's not afraid

G A D
And now I bet you're glad you stayed

A D G D A D A D (?)

D G D
Looking so lovely and perfectly groomed

G D A D
She showed in the centre of Patrick's room

G D
She was lit up from the inside and out

G D A D
Oh he was enchanted as she moved about

G D G D
She touched him like sunlight on cold mountain stone

A D
And he grew afraid lest she leave him alone

