B D E G#m G

=====

B

B
Another time, another day

D
Another baby on the way

E
A dreamboy for your nightmare nights

G#m
Who never shouts and never fights

Happy with your 2.2

D
What else is there for you to do

E
But turn and wet the baby's head

G#m
And pray he will be happier than you or me?

G
That's how it's meant to be

D
It's called a lifetime

G
At first you never notice

E
Then the years go flying by and I say

G B
Tread lightly in your dreams

E G B
They might come true for you tomorrow

B
Say sorry to the boys and girls

D
You're sorry for this bloody world

E
Sorry for the sick and old

G#m
And sorry for the lies you told

B
Sorry for the things I did

D
The things we should have left unsaid

E
And walked away and left instead of

G#m
Rubbing salt on all those open sores and wounds

G
We should have left to heal

D
I never knew just what to feel or to expect

G
I tried to stretch my mind but I'd just

E
Get my body wrecked and now I

G B
Tread lightly in my dreams

E G B
They might come true tomorrow

G B
And I don't sleep at night in case

E G C#
I don't wake up tomorrow

I curse the day I met you But I won't forget you

B D E G#m
Not in my lifetime

B
Another time, another day

D
You'd never give your heart away

E
You'd never think and never cry

G#m
 You'd look the devil in the eye

 G
 And tell him to be gone, bye bye

 D
 He'll never get you in this lifetime

 G E
 He'd love to touch you but his hands are tied

 G B
 So just tread lightly in your dreams

 E G B
 They might come true for you tomorrow

 G B
 Tread lightly in your dreams

 E G B
 They might come true for you tomorrow

 E G B
 They might come true for you tomorrow

 E G B E G B
